

YOUR TUNA POLING ADVENTURE

WHAT: Join the historic MFV Tacoma's annual Ladies' tuna fishing adventure and experience the thrill of poling a Southern Bluefin Tuna onboard the 84ft wooden tuna clipper in the Southern Ocean & the Great Australian Bight.

Places are very limited. We're recreating a 1950s tuna fishing trip. You'll be using original fishing methods with live bait and bamboo poles. Your participation assists to maintain the vessel for future generations.

WHERE: Port Lincoln, Neptune Island - places that are not too far away for 4 days and 3 nights. We are fair weather tuna polers!

WHEN: Arrive at Port Lincoln and go onboard on Friday 5th February 2027 for crew training. We depart for the tuna grounds on Saturday, weather permitting. We then spend the next day fishing for tuna & having a great life experience.

Anchorage is weather dependent and could include Memory & Snug Coves. We arrive back at Port Lincoln on Monday 8th February 2027.

ACCOMMODATION: Tacoma has twelve comfortable bunks, bedding, showers & a toilet.

MEALS: All provided and include memorable roasts from the AGA cooker.

CREW: There is something for everyone to do as a crew member of the 2027 Tuna Poling Fishing Adventure. All poling equipment is supplied and you can bring your own favorite rod & tackle.

$1,200 for the 4 days ($400/night)
10% deposit required

Includes 12 month Tacoma Preservation Society Membership

A Great Adventure

Pioneering Tuna Clipper

The determination of 3 young fishermen in taking on such a large project serves as an example for all generations. The Haldane men took 7 years to build the boat on the Moyne River at Port Fairy (Vic).

After its launch in 1951, MFV Tacoma's maiden voyage was to Port Lincoln (SA).

It arrived on January 18th 1952. On board were the three Haldane boat builder & fishing brothers Bill, Alan and Hughie, their entire families and the Bellamy twins, Keith and Jack – nine adults, seven children, one watchdog and a cat.

The arrival of the Tacoma heralded the start of the tuna industry in SA.

Tick your bucket list!
